The Sue & Freddie Walding Bursary is intended to support young horn players who are unable fully to develop their potential because of acute financial constraints. Grants will be given to assist in the purchase of a horn. Applicants must be able to demonstrate actual financial hardship. If the Committee decides to take this application further it will require evidence of hardship, which will remain confidential. If you would prefer not to complete this part of the form until asked, we will understand, but clearly it will help your case if you give some indication of the following at this stage:

6 Current NET income, including salary, tips,
commission, tax credits,
state benefits

7 Current NET income of partner or spouse, including above non-salary items

8 Total outgoings of household

Total Savings

Home Status (e.g. Mortgaged/owner/tenant)
